

Time for Bed

It was the end of a busy day, and _____ was very tired. He checked the clock, (name for a boy)

and since it was already _____, he knew he should get ready for bed.
(time)

First he took off his _____ and put on his _____.
(article of clothing) (article of clothing)

He straightened up the house by picking up all of his _____ and putting them away in a _____. He was hungry, so his mom gave him a _____ (a place to put something) (size)
(plural noun)

helping of _____ for a snack. The boy said, " _____!"
(food) (Exclamation)

After the snack, he needed to brush his _____, so he put _____ (part of the body) (flavor)

-flavored toothpaste on his _____ and _____ for (noun) (past tense verb)

_____. He wanted to get comfortable to watch a video, so he _____ (length of time) (past tense verb)

on the _____. Finally he was ready to sleep, so he _____ (object in a house) (a way to move) to his _____ and lay down on the _____. He put his (room in the house) (furniture)

_____ on his pillow, snuggled with his _____, and covered up (part of the body) (noun)

with a _____ _____. His Mama _____ him a (adjective) (noun) (a kind of sound)

lullaby called _____. Mama said " _____ (title of song) (any phrase)

_____." He was so _____ that he fell asleep in only _____.
(emotion) (amount of time)